McLAREN VALE

Colour never equals flavour...
We have long loved the way that pale pink, crisp, dry, and aromatic Rosé suits both the pan-asian food served in our own home, and the climate of the country in which we live...

Creation

A blend of dry grown Blewitt Springs Mataro planted deep into sand to provide fragrance and tannin, with Cinsault planted deep into the Onkaparinga Rocks of our own The Chase Vineyard. We handpicked on the same day, very lightly pressed, and co-fermented both paces to retain delicacy.

Composition

On the drier end of the spectrum, a deliberately delicate expression of rose, turkish delight, and lifted spice. The palate is long and intense, with strawberry fruit, a lick of amaro bitters, and a little tannin to provide the whip-tale of refreshment..

Consumption

Start from the fridge, and allow it to warm up, and consume with food that you eat with your hands. Betel leaves and spicy prawn salsa, figs wrapped in prosciutto – Salute!
