2018 MATARO

McLAREN VALE

Q: Mataro, Mourvedre, or Monastrell?
A: It doesn't matter, just think beast!
Ever the blender, Mataro rarely gets to shine individually in Australia, but here is its chance... The worst vegetarian wine in the world, Mataro famous for its robust intricate tannins begs to be consumed alongside a slab or slice of your favourite beast! - fatty, barbecued, flame grilled meat... Unleash your inner carnivore!

Creation

Mataro is suited to McLaren Vale's coastal location and and Mediterranean climate, especially when thoughtfully grown in the sandy free draining hills of Blewitt Springs facing east to catch the morning sun. Planted into deep wind-blown sand to highlight aromatics and fine-grained structure. Dry grown and low yielding, this vineyard produces thick skinned and small berried grapes, which we hand picked to ensure delicacy, then lightly de-stemmed to retain whole berries, and cold soaked before fermentation to capture aromatics. Fermentation was in open vessels with daily pump overs, before basket pressing to old French oak puncheons for 14 months maturation.

Composition

Shy, brooding, this is a bright but deep expression of Mataro. A complex nose of dark plummy fruit, balanced with garrigues herbs, cloves, nutmeg, cardamom, fennel seeds, the whole butcher's shop... On the palate, a compact core of blue and black fruits subtly supported by creamy oak, and carried by a ferruginous driving tannin structure, which carries the fruit through the mouth.

Consumption

Ideal serving temperature is 16 °C, please take the time to splash in a decanter for as long as you dare – and serve with your family BBQ – Italian pork and fennel sausages, or black cardamom spiced skirt steak flashed over open coals. Cool cellaring between to 5 years to 12 years will be rewarded.
